

Netherton Farm Shop's Got Great 'Taste'

Hinchliffe's Farm Shop and Restaurant, nr Huddersfield, are licking their lips after being shortlisted in the 'Taste of Yorkshire' category in the acclaimed White Rose Award's.

Described as the 'cream of Yorkshire Hospitality' short listed businesses attended a sparkling awards ceremony at Doncaster Racecourse earlier this week, where Hinchliffe's and other shortlisted businesses were hailed for their contribution to Yorkshire's Economy and the nation's tourism industry.

Gary Verity, chief executive of Welcome to Yorkshire, said "Yorkshire's tourism economy is booming and the finalist list for the White Rose Awards indicates why. The level of high quality entries was outstanding and a firm indication that our tourism industry know the importance of offering our visitors that extra special experience."

The news follows a fantastic year at Hinchliffe's, who have already won a hat-trick of awards at this year's Bakewell Show, held in Derbyshire – including a first prize Golden Roast Trophy.

General Manager Simon Hirst has said 'We pride ourselves on offering good, old fashioned service with a smile, and it's fantastic that we have been recognised for our contribution to Yorkshires Hospitality industry. All of our produce is either home-bred or sourced from trusted local producers and farmers, and we offer an enticing and relaxing shopping experience that provides customers with that little something extra".
