CHRISTMAS

QUALITY YOU CAN TASTE. PEOPLE YOU CAN TRUST.

We know that for many families, this has been another challenging year. With the cost of living continuing to rise, we're all thinking more carefully about where we spend our money and what really matters. And we understand that completely.

At Hinchliffe's, we've never claimed to be the cheapest. What we have always promised is exceptional quality, honest food and good old-fashioned service. It's a promise our family has stood by since 1929, and one we're just as passionate about today.

From our home-reared meats and freshly prepared produce to our carefully selected local suppliers, everything we offer is chosen with care. We believe good food should be worth every penny, and that quality, flavour and provenance really do make a difference.

Shopping local also means so much more than simply buying your Christmas dinner.

It means supporting local farmers, growers, makers and independent businesses. It means sustaining local jobs, traditional skills and the community we're all proud to be part of.

We know you have choices about where to shop, and we never take it for granted when you choose us. Whether you're picking up a few festive favourites or trusting us with your Christmas feast, your support genuinely means the world to us.

As Christmas approaches, we hope you'll enjoy the simple pleasures that make this season special. Good food, time with family and friends, and the warmth of being together.

Thank you for supporting Hinchliffe's, The Rusty Bull and the many local people and businesses who are part of our story.

Wishing you a wonderful Christmas and a happy, healthy New Year.
